

THE STARDUST ARTS STUDENTS SHARE THEIR ARTWORK WITH THE WORLD!

Carlsbad, CA -- Move Over Famous Artists! The Stardust Arts artists are taking over the spotlight! Cheryl Ehlers, the Artist Outreach Program grant recipient for Kenneth A. Picerene Foundation and a volunteer school Art Teacher, has teamed up with Artsonia, www.artsonia.com -- the world's largest online kid's art museum -- to display the students' artwork.

Anyone can view the school gallery online at: www.artsonia.com/schools/Stardust1. Visitors can browse the artwork in the school gallery by grade level, or by specific exhibits. The Stardust Arts students join thousands of students from over 100 countries whose artwork is showcased on Artsonia. "This program is a wonderful way to get parents and family members more involved in Art Education," said Cheryl Ehlers.

Headquartered in Gurnee, Ill., Artsonia was established in 2000 as an online kid's art museum providing free, educational resources for kids, families and schools to create art projects. Since its inception, Artsonia continues to integrate technology in the classroom, develop multi-cultural understanding through art and increase family involvement in children's education.
